If you want it back
(Whoa)

Well take it back
(Whoa)

Everything belonged to you before
(Everything belonged to you before)

Up against your biggest enemy
(Up against your biggest enemy)

You don't want it anymore
(Whoa)

The surrender you call sweet isn't sweet
You tell me to leave, and I won't dare to leave
You want it back
(Whoa)

Then take it back
(Whoa)

And you still don't have a clue
On what's wrong with you
(On what's wrong with you)

And my words don't mean a thing
(And my words don't mean a thing)

You don't want the meaning anymore
(Whoa)

The surrender you call sweet isn't sweet
Yeah, you don't know what to believe
(Whoa)

Looking around, with the eyes of uncertainty
So come on down, and feel your weakness
(Whoa)

Do you want this back?

(Whoa)

Well take this back
(Whoa)

Do you want this back?
Well I know you want this back
And you can't take this back
(Whoa)

If you want this back
(Well even if you don't want this back)
Throw your lies away
(Throw your lies away)

And soon you'll need somewhere else to hide
But you don't have the time to decide
(The time to decide, whoa)

The surrender you call sweet isn't sweet
You tell me to leave, but you wanna know a bit more
Another lie, you don't get the lesson yet (whoa)
You're uncertain of where to go, why not just stay?
(whoa)

If you want it back, can't you stay?
Just tell me that you want this back
