I run through a town with nobody left
I'm tired of you and my mind isn't deft
I close my eyes to look back in my mind
And look back but realize nothing is behind
I'm left with the air that I breathe
I doubt it but I guess I need to believe

You left me out in the dark
As a walked a lonely road
You took away my spark
And you still left me alone
I was crawling under the sky
Where I can't believe my eyes
And I see that in this end you'll break my heart
In the bitter end

The sun I rely on is starting to gloom
I'm blind and this town is covered with doom
I can't say no for what I have got
And lose my mind and give up on this shot
I'm left with the air that I breathe
I'm sure I won't feel anymore relief

You left me out in the dark
As a walked a lonely road
You took away my spark
And you still left me alone
I was crawling under the sky
Where I can't believe my eyes
And I see that in this end you'll break my heart
In the bitter end

You left me out in the dark
As a walked a lonely road
You took away my spark
And you still left me alone
I was crawling under the sky
Where I can't believe my eyes
And I see that in this end you'll break my heart
In the bitter end

In the bitter end, in the bitter end
I can't depend, on the truth I bent
In the bitter end, in the bitter end (In the bitter end)
I can't spend, my life with this fiend
In the bitter end, in the bitter end (In the bitter end)
You can't be with me, in the bitter end
In the bitter end

You left me out in the dark
As a walked a lonely road
You took away my spark
And you still left me alone
I was crawling under the sky
Where I can't believe my eyes
And I see that in this end you'll break my heart
In the bitter end
I run through a town with nobody left
