If this was the time to say
But I know it's not the time just yet
Is it that you're pushing me away
Until it comes to where I can't set

Stop me now, I cannot see
From your words decieving me
There's no right, and there's no wrong
When you've lost a thing to keep you strong

Now this still might be the middle
It's not too late, it'll never be
I'll just turn around, walk the way back
It won't bring me down, it never will

If things were to come all undone
But I know that they're really right
Will I go and say the truth
Just stand there to stop the moment?

Stop me now, I cannot see
From your words decieving me
There's no right, and there's no wrong
When you've lost a thing to keep you strong

Now this still might be the middle
It's not too late, it'll never be
I'll just turn around, walk the way back
It won't bring me down, it never will

Now this still might be the middle
It's not too late, it'll never be
I'll just turn around, walk the way back
It won't bring me down, it never will

It's still the middle, face my back
I've know, I've seen, the path is black
I'll just turn around, walk this way back
It won't bring me down, it never will, never will...
