So what's the blame now
Is it anything you've done wrong?
Maybe I'm the one to show you how
But it's never going to work along

Leave it out, you won't shout it loud
That's how you are, how you were
So I wasn't there to take the blame
But I let myself to take the shame
That's how it ends, this is the results
Leave me the rest, but I won't handle my best It'll all stay the same, you won't bother calling me in my name
In my time, in our time
In the nick of time, to start this rhyme

But you know how it ended like this
You really know why
It's all from me
It's all from me
It's all from me
It's all from me
It's all from me
Cause' it's where I am that matters
I don't belong here
I don't belong here
I don't belong here
I don't belong here
And now you know how it ends
So reset this reality
Reset this reality
Reset this reality
Reset my reality
Right now, right now!
