I see you go down when I threw my weight behind
I see you go down when I threw my weight behind
I see you go down when I threw my weight behind
I see you go down when I threw my weight behind

Your reputation is fairly bad (Fairly bad)
It's all from when you got off the weight that you had

I see you go down when I threw my weight behind
Can't you see girl, that this was never in mind
You will see soon, when I take you out of misery
And it'll be done, for another obligation to beat the clock
Things might be wrong, but this is how I walk

Do you remember that day, it was my pleasure (My pleasure)
Nothing seemed bad, that day (That day)
Must have been a day, I needed to treasure

And the time has now come, to show you my scars
Things might be wrong, but this is how I walk

I see you go down when I threw my weight behind
Can't you see girl, that this was never in mind
You will see soon, when I take you out of misery
And it'll be done, for another obligation to beat the clock
Things might be wrong, but this is how I walk

I see you go down when I threw my weight behind
Can't you see girl, that this was never in mind
You will see soon, when I take you out of misery
And it'll be done, for another obligation to beat the clock
Things might be wrong, but this is how I... walk

Now it's time, to show you my scars
I see you go down when I threw my weight behind
I see you go down when I threw my weight behind
I see you go down when I threw my weight behind
I see you go down when I threw my weight behind
