So we try and try all of our life working With such pride making cash just to survive
As we race and grade and judge away other folks mistakes Makes us good to feel that way. And don't you know, it never Stops. TRY TO PLEASE THE WORLD TO BEAT THE TICKING CLOCKS, but I,
I'm not letting it happen this time.

No no because, if you do not bail, and you should bail, if
This is a cure when im in this jail, but I, I'm not letting it Happen this time,

So i'll move to the other side of the block
So we wont ever have to stop making the rounds having the Laughs singing the sounds of the laughs, and on the other side Of the clock the power switch will be TURNED off and all will be well and Time will stand still, and I will be locked out from my jail.
