If I could change a wrong to right
That's just what I'd do tonight
This life of mine's so hard to live
What I did, you can't forgive

If I could live my life all over
I would change from the start
I would never, ever do wrong
And I'd never hurt your heart

Just one more chance
Is all I ask of you
Just one more chance
So I can prove I'm true

That's why I'm
Standing here before you
Such a loser in romance
I would gladly give my life to you
If you would give me one more chance

Just one more chance
Is all I ask of you
Just one more chance
So I can prove I'm true

That's why I'm
Standing here before you
Such a loser in romance
I would gladly give my life to you
If you would give me one more chance
