(ron wood, rod stewart, ian mclagan, 1973)Oh cindy ain?t you noticedThat several of your friends have moved onAnd the street outside is just a little too quietAnd your local papers run out of newsI?m not persuading you or disengaging youBut cindy you and me we got to moveCan you refuse, no time to loseWe?ll hit the high road early this morningSo don?t be late, don?t hesitateThis dream can pass just as fast as lightingAnd oh cindy incidentally baby I ain?t putting you onCan you refuse, with ( ) loseWe?ll hit the high road early this morningSo don?t be late, don?t hesitateThis dream can pass just as fast as lightingOh cindy don?t you worry?cause between us we can make it throughThere ain?t nothing no no nothingIn the world I can do without youSo cindy get your coat onLeave the rent with the gent up in the penthouseTurn your music so loud let?s attract a big crowdWe?ll drink a round to this town and bid goodbye
