funny thing how life works out and i could tell you all about it but you already know you and me, we keep it simple, laugh and cry and live a little every morning i get up just to make it to work on time doing what i gotta do to survive...

it's a 9 to 5 but i'll be alright
as long as i know i can wake up every morning with you.
and i know that i'm not perfect, still you love it when i try i know it's hard to do but that 9 to 5's worth coming home to you.

you know me, i just can't hide it, i love you and just can't fight it, my world's not complete without you.
like a day in mid-november, i'm kind of grey and not quite centered, yeah, somehow you broke through we pay our bills so we can turn on the lights, another day another dollar so we can make it right, we'll make it right...

as long as i know i can wake up every morning with you.
and i know that i'm not perfect,
but that 9 to 5's worth coming home to you.

i wanna be the one to always kiss you goodnight i wanna fall in love with you every day of my life

as long as i know i can wake up every morning with you.
and i know that i'm not perfect,
still you love it when i try i know it's hard to do
but that 9 to 5's worth coming home to you.

that 9 to 5's worth coming home
that 9 to 5's worth coming home that 9 to 5's worth coming home to you.
