I say things that hurt her feelings,
She thinks about stuff I have no opinions on.
I like violent movies,
She falls asleep with the TV on.

In between where we are and where we wanna be.
In between where we are and where we wanna be.

She's got plans for everything,
I'll forget about it by the end of the day.
She gets cold wherever we go,
And I told her to bring a coat.

In between where we are and where we wanna be.
In between where we are and where we wanna be.

They got a million reasons why we won't work out
We only need one, just you and I.

In between where we are and where we wanna be.
In between where we are and where we wanna be.
In between where we are and where we wanna be.
In between where we are and where we wanna be.

I say things that hurt her feelings,
But she gets me anyway.
