And so we've been here a thousand times before
We talk about it like we wanted more

This time, this time will be our last
This time, this time will be our last
This time, this time, this time
This time, this time, this time

Of late it's what we go through, these motions to the world
We disregard apologies and what we're fighting for

This time, this time will be our last
This time, this time will be our last
This time, this time, this time
This time, this time, this time

This time, this time will be our last
This time, this time will be our last
This time, this time will be our last
This time, this time will be my last

This time, this time, this time - it's all about you now
This time, this time, this time - it's all about you now
This time, this time, this time - it's all about you now
This time, this time will be...
