"Make Your Mind Up"

Visit "Make Your Mind Up" on MotoLyrics.com

You've been standing
On the brink of something
Staring out into the abyss
You say you want to Change your life completely
You say you've never felt
Nothing like this...but

CHORUS

Once you make your mind up
Surrender your soul
Open up your heavy heart door
(You know that)
Once you make your mind up
And give Him control
You'll never look back anymore

That leap of faith is so hard to muster
You think you're gonna who you are
But if you die, then you will live forever
I know you're thinking
That it sounds so bizarre...but

BRIDGE

Just fall into the healing waters
Jump into the well of perfect love
