Are you the one
Who's lonely inside
Coming undone
And wondering why?
You need someone
Who will look past the pain
Who will love you anyway

Around we go
In circles of fear
This world is cold
Too few of us care
Can we control
The mess that we're in
When we don't know where to begin?
It's time to start all over again

(Chorus)
When you call on me I'll always be there
To pass a friend in need just doesn't seem fair
We'll realize that there's no sense in running away
To love the Good Samaritan way
I know it's tough
It seems hope is gone
It's not enough
To simply move on
I'll show you love
When you are hurting inside
I'll stay here through the night
While the others pass on by

(Repeat Chorus)

You are not alone
Even when the nights grow so cold
Everywhere you go
I'll be forever a friend
(I'll be the Good Samaritan)

(Repeat Chorus)
