Chorus:

The finest woman that I've ever known
The finest woman that I've ever known
Shine a light on this love of mine
The finest woman that I've ever known

Verse 1:

My days were lonely and my nights were long
My life was empty and my dreams were long gone
I was hanging with a
My only lover was the red, red wine
I was just about to call a cab to take me home
Standing right there, talking on the á¹—hone about

Chorus:

The finest woman that I've ever known
The finest woman that I've ever known
Shine a light on this love of mine
The finest woman that I've ever known
Alright

Listen

The finest woman that I've ever known
The finest woman that I've ever known
Shine a light on this love of mine
The finest woman that I've ever known

she does not drink, she does not smoke
I rock her world even though I'm stoned
Alright
She got the beauty, she got the brains
She bring me crackers on a long
Six foot one with a golden heart
. them thighs

Chorus:

The finest woman that I've ever known
The finest woman that I've ever known
Shine a light on this love of mine
The finest woman that I've ever known

Chorus:

The finest woman that I've ever known
The finest woman that I've ever known
Shine a light on this love of mine
The finest woman that I've ever known

The finest woman that I've ever known
The finest woman that I've ever known
Shine a light on this love of mine
The finest woman that I've ever known
