

Rodgers And Hammerstein

"Angel's Hands"

Visit "Angel's Hands" on MotoLyrics.com

She said I've been up all night and half scared to death, I can smell liquor on your breath, I paid for your rehab with my IRA, boy your daddy'd be turnin in his grave, she said son I've done all a momma can do, I save myself but Icant save you, he said I wish that you and Jesus would get offa my back, they said his truck was doin 90 when he crashed, I bet it gets so quiet in heaven sometimes, even god cries...when an angels hands are tied, they said honey grown-ups do this all the time, the tears welled up in the little girls eyes, they said now it's not something that you've done, it's just that mommy and daddy don't get along, she said do you guys mean that you need a time-out, and that daddy's gonna move to a different house, they said you'll have two bedrooms your a lucky kid, she said well what about Checkers wheres he gonna live, I bet it gets so quet in heaven sometimes..even god cries when an angels hands are tied, She prays angels watch me through the night, stay by my side till morning light god bless momma god bless daddy , keep us together and happy, I bet it gets so quiet in heaven sometimes even god cries when an angels hands are tied.

Visit Rodgers And Hammerstein page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.