Go with it, anythin' you say, go with it, anythin' you say
(X4)

That boy, that girl, just met each other (each other)
They were just learn to love one another
But you have to take it all away (anything you do!)
Now they just went seperate ways
I know, you know that's not right (anything you do!)
You made them go with the far
Why don't you just, mind your own business (anythin' you say, anythin' you do)
I hope you'd get it all back (anythin' you say)

Anythin' you say, anythin' you do, it all comes back to
you (X4)
Go with it, anythin' you say, just go with it

He wanna show them he was right
This will come back to you
Some say, that it's part of life
They know, that it is all right (anythin' you do!)
That boy, that girl just met each other (each other)
So let them learn about one another (anythin' you do!)
Go find your own, don't make a solo (no no no)
I hope you'd get it all back (anythin' you say)

Anythin' you say, anythin' you do, it all comes back to
you (X4)

Go with it, anythin' you say, just go with it
Go with it, anythin' you say, go with it, anythin' you say

Just go with it, make it right
Don't let 'em get your fight
Don't make it all a mess
Just stop baby before it gets too...
Just try to get to the one you love
That's why they do this, it's part of life
Trying to get to, what's you like
Go with it, anythin' you say

Anythin' you say, anythin' you do, it all comes back to

you (X8)

Go with it.
