Watched the sun sink to the ocean
Driving home on highway one
The smell of sea and suntan lotion
The last day of summer's just begun

All this time and all this history
Yes it's all So beautiful to me

Chorus:

I can't let go and I don't wanna leave yet
Don't want to know that we're leaving tomorrow
I don't wanna say goodbye
Something tells me this is where we end
I don't wanna see you cry
I'm holding on
To the endless summer
To the endless summer

Reality is getting closer
So many things left unsaid
We shared the tears, we shared the laughter
And no one knows where lies ahead

(chorus)

Seemed we had so much time together
Now it's running out on us
With each breath I take
We just fade away
We caught to perfect wave together
And memories are all I have to keep
I'm holding on

(chorus)
