I really thought I got it this time,
I never knew a thing like this could end
I guess I'm really back to nothing
To what they use to call square one
(I'm starting all over)

Waking up alone again now
Staring at the phone and wondering how
Reading all the letters once more
Try to figure out how this could be
(All over so over)

But then there is that someone
Wherever I'm turning she's there

Like no one
You take the pain away
Like the sun
Lighting up my everyday
You are the sun the only one
Like no one
You stay around for me
Like the sun
Lighting up the way for me
You are the sun the only one you are the sun oh

I know I really shouldn't do this
I really shouldn't make the same mistake
(All over we've been there)
I don't even wanna do it
It's just a way of keeping thoughts away
(An easy solution)

It'll always be that someone
Wherever I'm turning she's there

Like no one
You take the pain away
Like the sun
Lighting up my everyday
You are the sun the only one
Like no one

You stay around for me
Like the sun
Lighting up the way for me
You are the sun the only one you are the sun

You are the sun
The only one I turn to in need
You are the sun
The only one I truly believe oh

Like no one
You take the pain away
Like the sun

Like no one
Like the sun
Like no one
Like the sun
