Verse 1:

Tomorrow is another day
And all that's good will come your way
To your future an open door
And you'll find what you're searching for Tomorrow you'll see your spirit grow
So let it be, let it overflow
Till the end of a perfect day
Close your eyes and drift away

Chorus:

You'll see sunshine, you'll see blue skies
A new horizon, you'll see for miles and miles
And miles
Tomorrow is another day (tomorrow)
A brand new day
You'll see sunshine, you'll see blue skies
A new horizon, you'll see for miles and miles
And miles

Verse 2:

Tomorrow is where your future lies
With every dawn of a new sunrise
There's a whole new reality
Full of wonder and mystery
Tomorrow promises a whole new start
A new beginning, a change of heart
So I dream of a world we know
Memories of long ago

Chorus:

You'll see sunshine, you'll see blue skies
A new horizon, you'll see for miles and miles
And miles
Tomorrow is another day (tomorrow)
A brand new day
You'll see sunshine, you'll see blue skies
A new horizon, you'll see for miles and miles
And miles
