You can show me the way
Give me a sunny day
What does it mean without your love?

And if I could travel far
If I could touch the stars
Where would I be without your love?

Whenever I get to feel, down and out
I think about what you said and then,
I give up.

If I could fly away
If I could sail today
Where would I go without your love?

You can show me the way
And give me a sunny day
What does it mean without your love?

And if I could travel far
If I could touch the stars
Where would I be without your love?

And if I ever wander away too far
You come looking for me with, open arms
I could forget my home,
Feel like a rolling stone
But who would I be without your love?

And what does it mean without your love?
Where would I be?
