Was alone then along came Mary, hair of gold and lips
like cherries
Was amazed when she stole my thunder, filled my world with the ways of wonder Come away come away with me, Far away where the eyes can't see Come away to another time, Pardon me if you lose your mind
Who are you now? Who makes the rules?
Follow your heart and get back....
Won't you get back....
Oh get back
like cherries
Was amazed when she stole my thunder, Filled my
world with the ways of wonder
Come away come away with me, Far away where the
eyes can't see
mind
Pardon me if you lose your mind
Pardon me if you lose, oh if you lose your mind
