Love, love is a thousand times stronger than me, stronger than you Well if you want to be a soldier go marching off to war
You think you're going to be a hero but we've heard it all before, boy
Love, love is a thousand times dearer than me, dearer than you Well if you want to be a leader, Then go and lead the way You're never going to give us freedom no matter what you say, boy
I said it'd better come soon...
La-La-La
'Cause love-love is the way
If only we all could hear, It just seems so clear I just can't believe watching the world what am I seeing?
But I know there's a way, oh there must be a way Oh there must come day - come a time when I can be free...
'Cause I want to hear her voice, softer than me, softer
than you
Whatever will it take me to bring her smile my way 'Cause every time I try to please her, she loves to go in hiding
I said she'd better come soon
