And did you get the picture I sent you?
Did you happen to see the card I wrote for you?
I'd like to know that I've made a difference
Or it's too late for us now

Let me take you out to a movie
The one you've told me about so many times before
I guess I should've paid more attention
'Cuz it's too late for us now

Sometimes little boys get lost
And often stray so far from home
In their search for greener pastures
Come to find that
Truth is all that really matters

Well, you've always liked roller coasters
And I'd be happy to let my stomach turn for you
Let's get lost for just a few hours
Or it's too late for us now, it's too late for us now

Too late for us now
(It's too late for us now)
Don't have an explanation
But you know I'm sorry

Too late for us now
(It's late)
Despite all this confusion
Would you promise for me
Don't forget the Skyway please
Just for me

Sometimes little boys get lost
And often stray so far from home
In their quest for buried treasure
Veer off course and find
Their search goes on forever

Did you get the picture I sent you?
And did you happen to hear the song I wrote for you?
Here's to us on our tenth anniversary

It's not too late for us now
We're not too late for us now
We're not too late for us now
