I got a 69 Chevy with a 396 fuellie heads and a Hurst on the floor she's waiting tonight down in the parking lot outside the seven eleven store me and my partner Sonny built her straight out of scratch and he rides with me from town to town we only run for the money got no strings attached we set 'em up and then we shut 'em down tonight tonight the strips just right I wanna blow 'em off in my first heat summers here and the time is right for racing in the street we take all the action we can meet and we cover all the north-east states and when the strip shuts down we run 'em in the street from the fire-roads to the inter-state now some guys they go racin' in the street tonight tonight the strips just right I wanna blow 'em all outta their seats we're calling out around the world we're going racing in the street I met her on the strip three years ago in a Camaro with this dude from L.A.
I blew that Camaro off my back and drove that little girl away but now there's wrinkles round my baby's eyes and she cries herself to sleep at night when I come home the house is dark she sighs 'baby did you make it alright' she sits on the porch of her daddy's house but all her pretty dreams are torn she stares off alone into the night with the eyes of one who hates for just bein' born for all the shut-down strangers and hot-rod angels rumblin' through this promised land tonight my baby and me we're gonna ride to the sea and wash these sins off our hands tonight tonight the highways bright out of our way mister you best keep summers here and the time is right

'cos summers here and the time is right for racing in the street
