Is there anybody in there?

Have you heard, it was on the news
Your child can read you like a bedtime story
Like a magazine, like a has-been out to grasp Like afternoon TV, why is my life going by so fast?

Hello I love you, is there anybody in there?
Put down the phone, shut up the shop, make all the techno babble stop
We'll find a short-wave frequency
The wave connecting you and me, hello I love you

Have you heard, it was on the news
The general staff can't figure out is this campaign win or lose
Life is long but it goes fast
The kids will have to separate their future from our past

Hello I love you, is there anybody in there?
The ghosts are walking by my side, I feel their love I feel their pride
For I have built a bridge or two Bridges between me and you, hello I love you

Have you heard, it was on the news
You can make your peace on the dark side of the moon
I'll see you there, we can rock 'n' roll
We can make our choice, we can say goodbye or say hello

Hello I love you, is there anybody in there?
Hello, hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello is there anybody in there?

Hello I love you, is there anybody in there?
Hello, hello, hello, hello

Hello, hello, hello, hello

Hello I love you, is there anybody in there?
Hello, hello, hello

Hello, hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello is there anybody in there?
