Distant and Detached, Where are you? Your not in your own realm. Outwardly suspended, minus emotion, Life is so Vacant and Blue.

Laughing outside my picture window. Swirling electrified signs. Singing sweet songs without solutions. Your not in space or in time.

You have no voice but you speak so clear.

You don't make sense to me. I wish I knew the meaning of the message in my ear. (Instl brk)

Distant and Detached Set me free. I just don't wanna go on. Where are you hiding, come back to me, send in your dreams a love song.

Laughing outside my picture window. Swirling electrified signs. Singing sweet songs without solutions. Your not in space or in time.

You have no voice but you speak so clear.

You don't make sense to me. I wish I knew the meaning of the message in my ear.
