I fell deep in Love the day I met her. In Blindness I felt she could do no wrong. I Wanted to be with that girl forever. But That Was long before I wrote this song.
We started spending every night together.
My world was getting brighter every day.
I wanted to be with that girl forever. I never Dreamed that I would ever say.
She did the Crime and I did the Time. There's no
Such thing as justice anymore. She stole my Heart and tore my world apart. She threw away my Happiness and locked the door. I testified in my Heart's defense, but her cheatin' litigation made
A plea. She lied and got acquitted and destroyed the Evidence, that's how She did the Crime and I did the Time (instrumental break)
It started with a phone call from her mother.
A family friend was comin' into Town. The friend turned out to be
Her other lover. Now there in Love and my world's Upside down. I caught her makin Love to him one Mornin'. It must have been before the break of Dawn. My sorrow turned to rage and then I shot her.
Now the only one I ever loved is gone.
She did the Crime and I did the Time. There's no
Such thing as justice anymore. She stole my Heart and tore my world apart. She threw away my Happiness and locked the door. I testified in my
Heart's defense, but her cheatin' litigation made
A plea. She lied and got acquitted and destroyed the Evidence, that's how She did the Crime and I did the Time. Yeah She did the crime and I did the time
