Quick to draw
Not like before
With these new habits
In old haunts
And no lines are left because they've all been said before

Arrive to deceive
Captured in reverie
Are you taken aback?
Because I've heard some vicious rumors and some shameful facts
And with no dismay Warned not to outstay your welcome

Out of luck when you're weighed up Take responsibility for what you mean then what you say

It's a pain that feeds on an intolerance of this
The unfair nature of some Fighting a losing battle but I won't go without an explosion
