I hit you from the screen
You're hanging with the crowd
Now tell me are you big enough
And are you really making out ?
Its written in the Sun
Read it in the stars on Sunday
You don't know Monday who you are

Hey yey oh
They don't know

Put your faith in me
I'm solid ground
Your faith in me
Won't let you down
When you believe, you laugh out loud
Your faith in me won't let you down girl, down girl
Come with me, yeah

They tell you who to love
They tell you who to rate
Fifty ways to leave your lover
Write the rules for getting laid
They tell you what is cool
They tell you that its hot to trot, not
You got to, got to play the game

Hey yey oh
They don't know
Hey yey oh
They don't know

Put your faith in me
I'm solid ground
Your faith in me
Won't let you down
When you believe, you laugh out loud
Your faith in me won't let you down girl, down girl
Come with me, yeah

Put your faith in me, yeah
Put your faith in me

They tell us who is black
They tell us who is white
They said it would be stormy weather
But nothing's ever cut and dry
So why's it really worth the fight ?

Hey yey oh, yeah

Put your faith in me
I'm solid ground
Your faith in me
Won't let you down
When you believe, you laugh out loud
Your faith in me...

I won't let you down
I won't let you down
I won't let you down
I won't let you, I won't let you down girl
Down girl
Come with me, yeah
Yeah, yeah
