I'm the world champion number one
Undefeated fool over you
Though I don't score
In any other thing that I do
Your love is my challenge
Every beat of each day I go through
While I hold the title
World champion fool over you

I make my stand
To make me the man
That you would call worthy of you
Should I take a fall
It won't end it all
I'd still be a number one fool

So I challenge the world
For the love of the girl
That controls everything that I do
Three cheers for the man
You hold in your hand
World champion fool over you

I make my stand
To make me the man
That you would call worthy of you
Should I take a fall
It won't end it all
I'd still be a number one fool

So I challenge the world
For the love of the girl
That controls everything that I do

Three cheers for the man
You hold in your hand
World champion fool over you

Three cheers for the man
You hold in your hand
That's meâ€¦ the world champion fool
