My darling, I love you so
More than you'll ever know
Each night I kneel and say a prayer
Hoping when I wake you'll still be there

I need your love with all my heart
Promise me we'll never part
We have a love that's sure to be
True love for all eternity

Always remember my love is true
No matter what I may do
And stay in this heart of mine
Until the very end of time

[Instrumental Interlude]

My dearest, I beg of you
To keep this love so plain and true
I ask the Lord, Lord up above
To never take away our love

No matter what I may do
Remember my love is true
We have a love that's sure to be
True love for all eternity
