

Darius Rucker

"Drinkin' And Dialin'"

Visit "Drinkin' And Dialin'" on MotoLyrics.com

Last thing I remember, I met the boys down at The Jammer
We had a few beers and a few shots
I woke up the next day with cotton mouth and a headache
Trying to connect all the dots

Staring up at the ceiling, I got that funny feeling
Looked over and I, I saw my ex-girlfriend
I felt like a fool and that's when I knew
I'd been drinkin' and dialin' again

So the next time you think I've had too much to drink
And you tell me I shouldn't drive home
When you take my keys, oh I'm beggin' you please Go on, take my cellphone

'Cause I have been known after tying one on
To call up a couple old friends
Tell 'em that I love 'em or maybe dog cuss 'em
When I'm drinkin' and dialin' again

So the next time you think I've had too much to drink
And you tell me I should not drive home
Oh, when you take my keys, oh I'm beggin' you please
Go on and take my cellphone

If you've ever heard me slurring my words
On your voicemail around 4 a.m.
You'll have to forgive me and blame it on the whiskey
I was drinkin' and dialin' again
I been drinkin' and dialin' again

Visit Darius Rucker page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.