i see you and everytime you look upset
i know i hurt you im sorry

you look beautiful like always your eyes your hair i wish i hadnt done what i did you hurt i can see it through your eyed (chorus)but somethings gotta go i had to be the one to make the first move you was hurting when i was with you but something gotta go i miss you so much but i had to leave you i couldnt stand seeing you in pain the way i put you through i miss waking up beside you chorus

you can have everything you want but i couldnt stand leaving you like i did i cant stand seeing you with another guy but ill survive without you by my side chorus 3x
