Come be my baby
Please come be my baby now
Can we just make love?
Trust me, let me show you how

You and me, we've got the perfect chemistry
And what it is will always be a mystery
Sometimes we fight but then we have the greatest night
And all I know is you ain't getting out of my sight

Don't worry baby, let's get inside
There's something about you that gets me every time,
time, time, time
I ain't gonna lose you because I love you too, too much
I'd die for just one touch

Come be my baby
Please come be my baby now
Can we just make love?
Trust me let me show you how

No time for maybe
Please come be my baby now, how
And baby stop running away

You and I have got the perfect alibi
To always touch and never ask the question why
We're still here and do it till we cry
I give my life and I never tell a lie, lie, lie, lie

Don't worry baby 'cause I'm you're guy
There's something about you that gets me every time,
time, time, time
I ain't gonna lose you 'cause I love you too, too much
I'd die for just one touch

Come be my baby
Please come be my baby now
Can we just make love?
Trust me, let me show you how

No time for maybe
Please come be my baby now, how
And baby stop running away

My baby, stop running away
My baby, stop running away
My baby, stop running away

Don't change, don't change, don't change
Don't change, don't change, don't change
Don't change, don't change, don't change

Don't change, don't change, don't change
Don't change, don't change

I come around
Because I'm on the ground
I'd die for just one touch

Come be my baby
Please come be my baby now
Can we just make love?
Trust me, let me show you how

No time for maybe
Please come be my baby now, how
And baby stop runnin' away

Come be my baby
Please come be my baby now
Can we just make love?
Trust me, let me show you how

No time for maybe
Please come be my baby now, how
And baby stop runnin' away
My baby stop runnin' away
My baby stop runnin' away

Come be my baby
Please come be my baby now
Can we just make love?
Trust me, let me show you how

No time for maybe
Please come be my baby now, how
(I can feel you come, you got to come around)
My baby stop runnin' away

Come be my baby
(Get me off the ground, you got to come around)

Please come be my baby now
(Get me off the ground, you got to come around)
Can we just make love?
(Get me off the ground, you got to come around)
Trust me, let me show you how

No time for maybe
Please come be my baby now, how
