God has given me a vision
And he's wearin' faded jeans
He's an angel from heaven
He's beyond my widest dreams

All the years I've spent a'prayin'
On my bended, weary knees
God has finally delivered
And he's beyond my wildest dreams

Chorus:
It's been a long time comin'
Now he's here beyond my wildest dreams

Oh his eyes could start a fire
And they're burning just for me
With a spirit full of passion
Far beyond my wildest dreams

Chorus:
It's been a long time comin'
Now he's here beyond my wildest dreams (repeat)

Bridge:
This time it's not a fading dream
He's given me his heart
Now I know
That it's real
Beyond my wildest dreams

If you've ever had a vision
And he's wearing those faded jeans
Well just get down on your knees, and pray to the god in heaven
He'll give you someone beyond your wildest dreams

Now he's here beyond, now he's here beyond
Now he's here beyond my wildest dreams
