Iâ€™ve got a sickness,
something bad slowly eating me,
and I donâ€™t think that I can fix this.
Iâ€™m lonely and
Iâ€™m only human.
Well, thatâ€™s my problem.

Maybe someday
we can lift each other higher
than these earthly wings would let us go,
weâ€™ll melt away,
weâ€™ll melt away and die.
Away and die.

Iâ€™m scared of whatâ€™s to come and whatâ€™s to come undone
in the end.
All that my lifeâ€™s become
is time for me to run
and pretend that my mind will live again.

Hurry Self, think quickly...
I feel blood in my lungs and Iâ€™m dying to live.
This pain was made by recipe,
itâ€™s not out on my skin.
Itâ€™s in my mind in knowing I wonâ€™t live again
