I missed my second chance- it flew right by,
and as another tear falls from your eye you've made your call... You've made "goodbye".

Well, I am just so happy to have known you-to have shown you all my life, wrapped in this moment here forever.

Wake me up and make me see if I am loved, whatever that may mean because I don't think I know but I still care.

All I know is that if it happens this way and if you leave me today it will be forever, and I know what that means forever...

It means we'll never be together.

And there is nothing to say.
The chips will fall as they may,
they will stay forever.
Do you think I will find another timeless love while all my time's with you?

Make your mind up-you're just holding me here, you're taking time up, but I don't mind as long as we're the only things locked on your mind-in there I'm yours and you are mine, and everything is as it should be.

Call your own bluff-it's only truth that space will never be enough to keep our thoughts from mixing.
Time is getting smaller and it's clear now that all we're here for is holding on.

I think you should let me know, because I have never been a good sport at this game that you call "letting go".

I think you should show me that I'm not another number in that cellular phone underneath your bed
