its cold outside tonight, we both hide in our blanket, by the window watch the wind blow watch the treetops your in your breath is warm on my neck.
Lets watch the storm and forget all the other people in this world, its so easy to living life behind this glass, when it rains outside
just close the blinds and laugh. hahaha ha hahaha.

I'll be by you,
you'll be by me too
we'll get through everything
we'll get through everything.
I'll remind you you'll remind me to,
we'll remember everything
November storms can bring.

Its only 6 pm were lost again, it seems so late out when the clouds come when the rain drops on the shingles of our head, i'll hold you tight till you sleep, the fire lights all we need lets pretend the powers are gone dead.

it so easy living life behind this glass,
when it rains outside
just close the blinds and laugh
hahaha ha hahaha.

I'll be by you,
you'll be by me too
we'll get through everything.
I'll remind you you'll remind me to,
we'll remember everything
November storms can bring.

November Storms can bring you back to a place when you can tell you are clean, and the only things you need are things which are free, i need your laugh

your heart full size, ill never leave your side.

I'll be by you,
we'll get through everything.
I'll remind you you'll remind me to,
we'll remember everything
November storms can bring.
