Moonlit nights and flying kites
We'd run along the coast line like the rolling tides
That's the way I died
Remember me right

Writing songs and righting wrongs
I did the best I could to keep you hanging on
That's the way I tried
Remember me right

Ooooooh
What a shame life can be
Ooooh
Do you think of me?
Are you losing sleep on those lonely nights?
Remember me right

Teary eyes and compromise
I held on to my love for you through all your lies
And that's the way I cried
Remember me right

Business stress unhappiness
I keep it locked inside of me, away from us
And that's the way I'd hide
Remember me right

Ooooooh
What a shame, what a shame
Ooooooh
Have you seen the moon?
Does it shine the same
On those lonely nights?
Those lonely nights

My last advice
Remember me right
