I'm so tired of fightin' this fight
Lookin' ahead, seein' no end in sight
Chasin' a heart that's always on the run
Gonna walk away; love owes me one

Hangin' on to that habit
Can't go on like this, whoa, I've had it
Leave the sad, brave, and lonely
Break these chains it's had on me
Keep the faith somewhere, my day will come
Gonna walk away; love owes me one

We've held on, me and this poor heart of mine
Roll the dice, but all we've had on the line
If givin' it all I've got just can't get it done
Gonna walk away; love owes me one

Hangin' on to that habit
Can't go on like this, oh, I've had it
Leave the sad, brave, and lonely
Break these chains it's had on me
Oh, keep the faith somewhere, my day will come
Gonna walk away; love owes me one

Hangin' on to that habit
Can't go on like this, whoa, I've had it
Leave the sad, brave, and lonely
Break these chains it's had on me
Oh, keep the faith somewhere, my day will come
Gonna walk away; love owes me one

Gonna walk away; love owes me one
