If you let me make love to you
Then why can't I touch you
If you let me make love to you
Then why can't I touch you
I'm not saying I want to change you
I don't want to rearrange you
If you let me make love to you
Then why can't I touch you
From the very first moment I saw you
It's been a different world
From the very first moment I saw you
It's been such a different world
I seem to be a little bit stronger
Each moment seems just a
Little, little bit longer
The missing links and little kinks
Have never been found and uncurled
But you're still the same
You're like a frozen flame
Well, it sure seems a shame
That you let me make love to you

But you won't let me touch you

When I leave you

I'm going someplace

That I've never been before

When I leave you

I'm going someplace

That I've never been before

Oh, reach out and touch me

Why don't you reach out

And touch me

If you let me make love to you

Then why can't I touch you

If you let me make love to you

Then why, why can't I touch you
