Danny Boy was cool
All his friends thought he was funny
Until he quit school, And he ran out of money
His pops kicked him out the door, He moved to London
Town

His mom said "You can do it, Danny Boy"
"If You Just Hop To It, Danny Boy"

Now he's living on the streets
Amongst the living dead
With a newspaper blanket, and a sidewalk for a bed
And Danny does'nt swim no more
He's hungry and he's cold

His mom said "You can do it, Danny Boy"
"If You Just Hop To It, Danny Boy"

Oh Danny Boy
Don't you hear the pipers calling
Down the street, and across the mountain side
Oh Danny Boy
Don't you hear the pipers calling

There saying "You can do it, Danny Boy"
"If You Just Hop To It, Danny Boy"
"You can do it, Danny Boy"

When are you coming home, Danny Boy
