Years now have passed Iâ€™ll never get them back mistakes that I have made come back to haunt me Iâ€™ve let a trail of tears for that I am regretful Iâ€™m sorry for the fears that Iâ€™ve created

Across the sea of souls she awaits me
Across the sea of souls its going to take me
No use pretending this is the ending
The calls so strong, , across the sea the sea of souls

Pride is not a game Iâ€™ve learned my lesson well

Thereâ€™s always one to blame, and then, forgiveness
Iâ€™ve always been the one to say that I donâ€™t need you Believe me in the end Iâ€™ve been alone

In memory relieve me from these shadows of my Forgive me , protect them ,let them all be put to rest

Promises are made many have been broken , I swear Upon this day Iâ€™ll keep them all
