If I was an sailboat I would sail you right home,
If I had a firework I would light up the sky, only for you,
Only for you

And we all go with the wind
And then sometimes appear in the rain.

Fly little bird.
Let it out if you don't know how to fly.
Fly little bird.
Spread your wings and I'll show you how to fly

I walked a thousand miles through the rain,
I had to change.
I walked a thousand days behind the wall,
I hat to change.

Laa Laa laa laa...

Now I'm sitting at the airport, looking in my hand, at my life line.
I didn't know the reason, I want to fly. I want to fly, on your wings.

Oooh oooh oooh...

If I was an eagle, I would teach you to fly.#
And if I had a firework, I would light up the sky.
Only for you, only for you.

We all go with the wind and then slowly appear in the rain.
Fly, little bird. Let it out if you don't know how to fly.
Fly, little bird. Spread your wings and I'll show you how to fly.

I walked a thousand miles through the rain.
I had to change my way.
I walked a thousand miles behind the wall.
I hat to change.

Naaa naa naa haaa da daaa naaa naaa naaa.

Naaa naa naa na na na naaaaa...

Now I'm sitting at the airport, looking at the airport,
Looking at my hand, at my life line.
I didn't know the reason, I want to fly...

I want to fly...
On your wings.
