Do you guess you can tell
If it's heaven or hell
That seems to fade away

Black sky and a tree
Only want to get free
So I think I could tell
So I wish I could tell

The sky is changing
But for me the sky is blue
Who can tell me if it's heaven or it's hell
(Uuuuuhhuuhu)
Later on the driveway home
(Uuuuuhhuuhu)
Looking to the black hole sky
(Uuuuuhhuuhu)
With stars dived in gold
(Uuuuuhhuuhu)
Seem to be hold by the black tree
Which seems so free

I stare into the light
Wishing I was never born
See your dreams fade away
Working against the love
I whispered into the dark
I whispered into the dark
So I whispered, I whispered into the dark

(Uuuuuhh uuuhhhh uuuuuhhh uuuhhh)
Now after made it through
I saw the darkness that grew
I saw the sense in everything
All the things we made make everything great
So I know it's heaven or hell
So I know it'S heaven or hell

It's heaven or hell
