I'm here in a lazy sound,
And where are those heavy sounds?

They want you nice and clean,
And I won't lead you there.

Cos' they were left here all alone,
Can hopes be destroyed, my dear?

Makes me wonder, when I was born,
Into the darkness of the night.
This makes me wonder,
When I was born.
In the darkness of the night.

And I've never followed in your footsteps.
Cos' drawing such a lie, I never left.

Those were all just guesses running fast.
Cos' I'm holding such a lie, I never left.

I see you up in the rainbow,
I see you up in the sky,
I see you crawling slowly,
Crawling into my soul.

I listen to the whisper of the stars.

And I see you up in the rainbow,
I see you up in the sky,
I see you leading dead souls.
Let's go into my hole.

So I feel myself and get controlled,
I feel myself and loose controll.

I listen to the whisper of the stars.

I see you up in the rainbow,
I see you up in the sky.
