"For A Real"

Bloody mind refused your persistence
Confusing with your distance
Describing your satisfaction
Impressing your destination
Open up the false eyes widely
You'll find the reality

You will find the reality

Follow through all of your desire
Should set it on fire
Wondering all of your dreaming
Couldn't happen while you are still sleeping
Cultivate before it's too late
Don't ask me to keep the faith

The time is running so much faster... faster
I try to keep on fighting, struggling, fighting, and struggling
My consequences are getting harder, stronger, harder
and stronger
I try to keep on fighting

See me
For a real
Sing me
For a real

See me
For a real
I wanna make it something real

Sing me for a real
I wanna make it something real

Sing me for a real
I wanna make it something real

The time is running so much faster... faster
I try to keep on fighting, struggling, fighting, and
struggling

My consequences are getting harder, stronger, harder
and stronger
I try to keep on fighting
