Check your pulse

It's proof that you're not listening to

The call your life's been issuing you

The rhythm of a line of idle days

Scared of the world outside you should go explore

Pull all the shades and wander the great indoors

The great indoors

Lamplight makes the shadows play

And posters take the walls away

The TV is your window pane

The view won't let you down

So put your faith in a late night show

I bet you didn't even know

Depends on how far out you go

The channel numbers change

Scared of the world outside you should go explore

Pull all the shades and wander the great indoors

Though lately I can't blame you

I have seen the world

And sometimes wish your room had room for two, yeah

So go unlock the door

And find what you are here for

Leave the great indoors

Check your pulse

It's proof that you're not listening to

The call your life's been issuing you

The rhythm of a line of idle days of idle days
