

Dark At Dawn "The Oasis"

While the Sea of Sand's getting larger - in every Step you take You'll find yourself attracted by the Glimpse of Fury deep inside In every Moment, to every Direction - the perfect Angle sends his Light for the merciless Judgement to be ratified

Chorus 1

Dreams and Visions of Trees in the Wideness pass my Mind
like a Storm of Desire in the fires gratified Feel the Breeze on your Skin - to release from Sin See before your Eyes the Oasis arise

The febrile Impressions are sent from the Past - showing Cities of Sand filled by ancient Hordes in the Names of Theirs
Time goes by and the Sea takes its Children - back home to the Pale no Signs left for the Future - impenetrable Trail

Chorus 1

With the Dawn getting closer the Lights fall - the Silence's last Shout goes out into the Wide where the Night comes - one last prance of Fright Future plans with no Chance of Fulfilment - discarding a Life while this Sea shows no Mercy the Hordes arrive

Chorus 2

Ancient Riders of Sand in the Wideness pass my Eye Closing in on the Trail of all wishes and Desires See them ride like the Wind - to fulfill your Please They're taking you home to the Pale of the Seas
