Walk through the mist at the awakening day
Threatening obscure dismal dark clouds my way

Chorus

Seducing whisper leads me down
To shallow seas in which to drown
Trapped within magic lullabies
Just as I heard his cursing cries

"Never see the day lit time
Dragon be, revenge is mine

You will forget what you once thought was yours
I'll take your shape and I will take her, too."
Chorus

The curse will last until you see and break the chains of "never-free"

Chorus
